++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Often rather cloudy but feeling warm.

Today:
A grey start for many with perhaps the odd spot of drizzle in places. Through the day, skies should brighten with a little afternoon sunshine on offer, especially further east. Warm for the time of year. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
Generally dry through the evening and overnight, with variable and at times large amounts of cloud. Some fog patches may form where skies stay clear. Staying mild overnight. Minimum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Friday:
Early cloud and fog patches will steadily lift and break to leave a dry day with some sunny spells by the afternoon. Warm again, with light winds. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Generally cloudier but remaining mostly dry during Saturday. Overnight patchy rain clearing southeastwards on Sunday, with brighter skies following. Sunny spells for most on Monday. Gradually turning cooler.
